(3) Why are you running for this particular court seat?

I have held this seat since January 6, 2001, and have instituted many innovations in the court, including the budget, technology, modernization, security, local rules, magistrates and mediators, judicial education, and publication. My docket has been perfectly current for my entire time on the bench. If elected, I want to continue my record of excellence in what would be my last term in this judicial seat.
