2001, I worked as an Assistant Prosecutor in Erie County Ohio for a year and then moved to private practice on my own until May of 2008 when I joined with Andrew Mayle and Ronald Mayle in the law firm Mayle, Ray & Mayle in Fremont. During my time in private practice, I primarily handled personal injury/wrongful death cases, felony, and misdemeanor defense, divorce, and custody cases. I also acted as a special prosecutor to several municipalities. As a litigator, I have tried many cases to verdict in many different courts and have broad experience in jury and bench trials.

(3) Why are you running for this particular court seat?

I'm running for this particular seat because I feel the Sandusky County judiciary is in need of some changes and this seat is the first to have an election.
