

APPROVAL FOR ACCEPTANCE OF GRADUATE COURSEWORK AT EAST OHIO UNIVERSITIES (Cross-Registration Form)

Under specific circumstances, a graduate degree-seeking student from The University of Akron School of Law may take one or more graduate courses at Cleveland State University College of Law without registering as a transient student. The course should contribute to the student's program of study and be unavailable at The University of Akron when needed to complete the student's program. The student must be in good standing (GPA >2.3) and be within time limits for completion of the degree program. The graduate program unit at The University of Akron will establish a special topics course with a graduate title that corresponds to the course title at the host university and will incorporate the initials of the host university (CSU Law). Registration for such a course is controlled by the student's home department and will be permitted only upon receipt of this approved form.
