Mohamed Abderraouf Bdioui

Mr. Mohamed Abderraouf Bdioui has served as Senior Counsellor, Management, Strategic Planning and Coordination Program, World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Academy since 2011. In this role, he participates in outlining the Academy's policies and programs, ensures the coordination of the Academy Programs and facilitates the establishment of partnerships and cooperation arrangements.

He also led several WIPO education and training initiatives, including the Judicial Training Institutions Project, which focused on building the capacity of national judicial training institutions in four pilot countries from 2017 to 2019. He's now leading a new Program on IP Training for Diplomats and Trade Officials.

Before joining WIPO, he chaired a number of official WIPO meetings, including the 47th and 48th Series of Meetings of the WIPO General Assemblies, the 61st and 62nd Sessions of the WIPO Coordination Committee and the 4th and 5th Sessions of the WIPO Committee on Development and Intellectual Property (CDIP).

He was Minister Plenipotentiary Hors Class at the Tunisian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and headed the WIPO, WHO, UNCTAD and UNDP desks in the Ministry. He was also Consul and Economic attaché at the Tunisian Embassy in Beijing for the period from 1996 to 2003 and served at the Permanent Mission of Tunisia in Geneva from 2006 to 2011.

Mr. Bdioui participated in several bilateral and multilateral discussions and conferences and contributed to the organization of the World Summit on the Information Society in 2003 in Geneva and in 2005 in Tunis.

Mr. Bdioui studied at the University of Tunis, the Mediterranean Academy of Diplomatic Studies and the National School of Administration in Paris and in Tunis. He holds a Master's degree in international relations and academic degrees in law, intellectual property, pedagogy and translation.