Over the past three years, Ted Smith, has offered a variety of topics for the Hudson SAGE community, classes held in Hudson in the fall and spring for senior citizens. The topics he presents are manifold, from Metaphysics, to Eastern and Celtic Spiritualism, Tai-Chi, as well as Irish/Celtic history. His wife is from Ireland and might come along for the presentation. Ted will share insights into the Irish culture and its Celtic heritage, as well as the Irish influence on American culture and help debunk some of the American misconceptions about Irish beliefs and customs.

Your help is needed: Items for the Time, Talents, & Treasures auction

We’re seeking donated items for the Time, Talents, & Treasures silent auction. Maybe you’re a great cook and could make dinner for people, or you know every bird in the CVNP and could lead a walking tour. Maybe you’re a gifted artist or crafter. If you have a special talent or skill, we’d love it if you would let us auction it off. Or maybe you have items around your house that you don’t use anymore, but that someone else may love. We’d love to help you clear out some of those nooks and crannies. If you are able to contribute anything to the silent auction, please let someone on the Scholarship Committee, Molly McBurney, Sylvia Johnson, or Diane Vukovich, know by March 15, 2016.

The Nominating Committee is pleased to announce the board nominations for 2016-17. Two changes have occurred since last month’s notification. Leslie Bain has accepted nomination for Membership Chair, and Denise Beck has accepted nomination for Special Activities/Historian Chair.

Thank you!
On February 6th thirty members, friends and family members gathered at Rhodes arena to watch the Akron U. Lady Zips play the Lady Redhawks of Miami (Ohio). With some excellent shooting and non-stop running, our team won, and we cheered boisterously from our front row seats. Really enjoyed the pep band, the cheer leaders and of course our favorite mascot, Zippy. Several of our members even caught T-shirts that were thrown into the crowd. During half-time we gathered for a group photo with Zippy. Great way to spend a Saturday in February!!
